Blue-sky thinking...

At Soneva, we believe that the brightest ideas weren't sparked by the blank walls of the boardroom. By stripping back to the bare basics, we challenge conformity and rid ourselves of distraction.

Here, we take a slower, more measured approach to life and business. Our 'no news, no shoes' philosophy is a great equalizer, swapping suits for shorts and pretensions for open minds. It is also an attitude that has led us to set the standard for sustainable luxury with our four nature-inspired resorts in the Maldives and Thailand.

Each of our luxury retreats offers a peaceful haven in which to disconnect, indulge in the luxuries of time and find inspiration from within. Toes in the sand and salt on the skin sets the mind free. Free to think bigger, better and further. Join us for an intimate business retreat or team meeting, and realise the true potential of your team and yourself.

Enjoy a delightful lunch on our private beach, prepared by the chef using only what he can catch or pick.

Inspiring venues

At Soneva, we don't believe that business needs to be conducted indoors, or that ties and shoes need to be worn. By releasing the shackles of routine, you can open your mind and delve deeper into your thoughts. If you can see the horizon, you can think beyond it.

Private sandbank meeting, Soneva Fushi

Speed off to your own private sandbank in the middle of the Indian Ocean. Inspired by the great outdoors, you will have the time and the space to engage, discuss and make great things happen.

Cinema Paradiso Screen at Soneva Fushi and Soneva Kiri

Transform our open-air cinema into your private nighttime auditorium. Project your presentation or inspirational video on the large screen, and see your team come alive under the magic of the starry sky.

Intimate meeting at the Treepod, Soneva Kiri

Hoisted high above the tropical foliage of Koh Kood's ancient rainforest, you will find yourself in a lofty sanctuary ideal for dreaming up inspired ideas with your team. Sample gourmet delight and lose yourself in the view of the endless ocean.

Inclusive meeting at Fresh in the Garden, Soneva Fushi

For the more intimate meeting, sit around the circular table high amid the banana trees and draw the ultimate stimulus from the beauty of your surroundings. With nothing to distract you but a delivery of canapés produced from freshly picked ingredients, the ideas will soon flow.

Beach meetings at Soneva Fushi and Soneva Kiri

Gather in nature's boardroom for a meeting of minds and discover a more organic way of working. The waves lapping at the shore and the breeze rustling the treetops will set the soundtrack to a day of discovery.

Weather

December to April is the high season in the Maldives – the time of year when it is usually dry with low humidity and warm temperatures. May to November is the rainier season, but groups wanting to embrace the ocean will catch the best waves and see the most life on the reefs.

In Thailand, from November into February the temperatures are mild and the weather is dry, making it the perfect season for an island event. From March to May, it is very hot and dry, but the skies are beautiful.
