Bette Midler

[Hotel Lobby]

She started out in the 60's as a theater performer and nightclub singer, but Bette Midler quickly rose to superstardom as one of the most unique and exciting song interpreters of the 20th century. Her incredible voice and warm sense of humor won her millions of fans and established "The Divine Miss M" as a bona-fide diva. Bette wore this incredible costume on stage in 2008.

Lady Gaga

[Hotel Lobby]

One of the defining artists of the 21st century, Lady Gaga is unmatched in her ability to be provocative and challenging while maintaining a mass audience appeal. That's an incredibly impressive accomplishment in the fickle world of pop music. Her completely over-the-top style has made her an icon of both music and fashion. She wore this Ming Ma-designed outfit during a BBC interview in 2013.

Marilyn Manson

[Hotel Lobby]

Born with the name Brian Hugh Warner, he found his stage name using two American cultural icons, Marilyn Monroe & Charles Mason. Marilyn Manson bassist Tim Skold wore this outfit on stage during the shock rock legend's 2007 'Eat Me, Drink Me' tour.

Rita Ora

[Hotel Lobby]

Originally from Kosovo, singer/actress/fashionista Rita Ora moved to U.K at age 1 and is now one of the biggest pop contemporary pop stars in the world. She wore this latex dress in 2012.

Taylor Swift

[Hotel Lobby]

Swift has been a talented girl since a very young age. She learned how to play the guitar from a computer repairman when she was 12 and this inspired her to write her first song "Lucky You". She has a total of 7 Grammy Awards, 11 American Music Awards and 6 Country Music Association Awards. Pop phenomenon Taylor Swift was photographed in this dress for GQ Magazine, November 2015 issue.

Christina Aguilera

[Hotel Lobby]

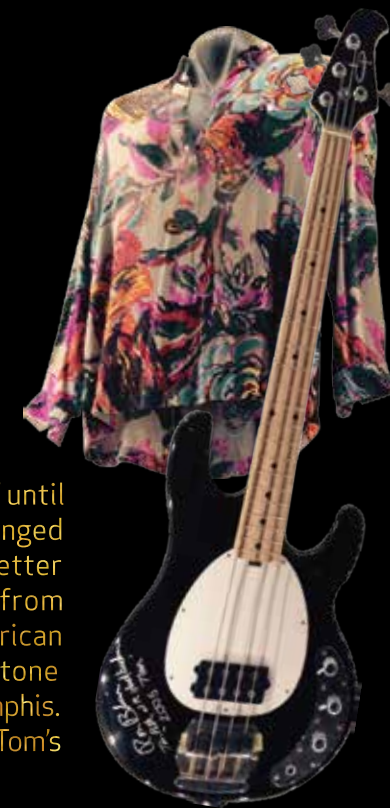

Pop icon Christina Aguilera is one of the most naturally gifted vocalists for the last 50 years. Her multi-octave soprano voice has driven a string of hits and she's widely regarded as one of the greatest singers in the world. Christina wore this dress when she appeared on 'The Tonight Show with Jay Leno' on September 13th 2013.

Rihanna

[Hotel Lobby]

Barbados-Born pop superstar Rihanna wore this Alexander Wang dress to the wedding of her former manager, Marc Jordon, in Venice on 25 September 2009. The incredible, custom made guitar was commissioned by Rihanna and used by her in the video for her smash 2009 hit "Rockstar 101".

Tom Petty

[Hotel Lobby]

Petty went by the name "Tommy Petty" until he started releasing albums then he changed his name to "Tom Petty" for it to look better in print. But his friends who knew him from before fame still call him "Tommy". American rock legend Tom Petty played this Truetone guitar when he was at Sun Studios in Memphis. The shirt on display was worn on stage by Tom's bassist, Ron Blair.

Rammstein

[Hotel Lobby]

Frontman Till Lindeman of German industrial metal pioneers Rammstein wore this reflective suit on stage while performing at Rosenball charity event in Vienna in 2002. The ESP guitar was used by Richard Kruspe throughout the 'Ahoi' and 'Liebe ist für alle da' tours from 2006 until 2011.

Elton John

[Hotel Lobby]

Sir Elton John wore this whimsical suit when he appeared on Disney's 'Totally Minnie' television program on 25th March 1988.

Pat Benatar

[Hotel Lobby]

This classic B.C Rich Bich guitar was signed by longtime Pat Benatar guitarist Neil Giraldo. With massive hits like "You Better Run", "Heartbreaker", and "Love is a Battlefield", Pat Benatar was one of the biggest stars of the 1980s. Neil also has the unique distinction of being the first guitarist ever shown on MTV.

Slipknot

[Hotel Lobby]

Slipknot is an American heavy metal band from Iowa that was founded in September 1995. Other than being known for their odd songs and style, this band was actually formed in a petrol station! Frontman Corey Taylor of extreme metal icons Slipknot wore this mask and jumpsuit on stage.

Alicia Keys

[Hotel Lobby]

Full name is Alicia Augello Cook, born in Hell's kitchen, Manhattan on 25th January 1984. She started playing the piano at the age of 7 and majored choir by the age of 14. She has had 22 songs in the Billboard Hot 100. Mega-talented singer/songwriter Alicia Keys wore this fringed dress on stage.
